

Proclamation

On a motion from
Councilor Fred Payne
Members of Greenville County Council proudly celebrate

Community Planning Month

WHEREAS, change is constant and affects all citizens of Greenville County; and

WHEREAS, community planning and plans can help manage this change in a way that provides better choices for how people work and live; and

WHEREAS, community planning provides an opportunity for all residents to be meaningfully involved in making choices that determine the future of their community; and

WHEREAS, the full benefits of planning require public officials and citizens who understand, support, and demand excellence in planning and plan implementation; and

WHEREAS, the month of October is designated as National Community Planning Month throughout the United States of America and its territories; and

WHEREAS, The Greenville County Council and its professional staff, who are members of the American Institute of Certified Planners, endorse National Community Planning Month as an opportunity to highlight the contributions sound planning and plan implementation make to the quality of life; and

WHEREAS, the celebration of National Community Planning Month gives us the opportunity to publicly recognize the professionals in the Planning and Code Compliance Division, the Planning Commission, and all other citizen planners who have contributed their time and expertise to the improvement of the quality of life for all in Greenville County;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT, County Council recognizes the many valuable contributions made by the Planning and Code Compliance Division, Planning Managers and staff, and extends our heartfelt thanks for the continued commitment to public service by these professionals as we declare October, 2012 to be

Community Planning Month in Greenville County

Signed this 2nd day of October, 2012

Herman G. "Butch" Kirven, Jr.
Chairman, Greenville County Council
