Budget Justification

ONLY USE FOR EQUIPMENT NOT ON THE LIST OF ELIGIBLE ITEMS. Please provide your justification, attach brochure or vendor literature.

See Attached

Headsets

Requested are noise-canceling headsets to be used by communication specialists in the GCEMS Comm Center. Following are the specifications we request of this product:

Wideband audio for more natural sound and clearer conversations

Fully compatible with standard band environments

Premium audio assures quality customer communications

Ultra noise-canceling screen out background noise, reducing distraction

Ergonomic Design for All Day Comfort

Over-the-head, all-day comfortable design for intensive use

Proven robustness at millions of agent workstations

Single and dual earpiece options meet varying needs and preferences

Quick Disconnect cord lets users walk away from their phones without removing headset

Supervisor Development Video Series

EMS services have typically and historically done a decent job of providing on-going continuing education training for field providers. However, they have not done a good job, if at all, in providing initial or ongoing training for supervisory staff.

Greenville County EMS has fallen into the latter category and often promotes individuals into supervisory positions without providing any additional training as it related to supervisor development. Therefore we are requesting grant in aid funds to purchase such a series to address the following: Disciplines of Risk Management, Customer Service, Accountability, Customer Service, Success and Elimination of Harassment, Bias and Discrimination in the Workplace.

24/7 Dispatch Chair

The 24/7 Dispatch Chair requested include the following specifications:

Complete ergonomic adjustability

Keeps caregivers comfortable, alert and ready for emergencies

All steel frame construction stands up to rugged use

Full ergonomic adjustability with adjustments for tension, chair tilt, seat height, lumbar support and seat depth

LCD HD Monitor Desk Stand

The features of this monitor desk stand include:

Improves energy and productivity by allowing the dispatcher to sit or stand as they are working which encourages healthy movement throughout the day

Counterbalanced adjustment points allow instantaneous, tool-free re-positioning

Reduces potential back and neck pain by adding movement to the work routine in a truly ergonomic workstation

Easily and simultaneously lift keyboard, laptop and LCD screen to proper height for unsurpassed ergonomic comfort

Patented Constant Force lift technology provides fluid, one-touch adjustments of the keyboard and monitor positions for personalized computing

Quad Monitor LCD HD Desk Stand

This desk stand allows the communication specialist to view information from four different monitors at one time. These stands maximize desk space and eliminate paper clutter in an already very cramped space.

The quad monitor lcd hd desk stand also include the same features as the above single desk stand
