POWER OF ATTORNEY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS that I, Hallie Chapin, principal, of the County of Greenville, State of South Carolina, hereby appoint Judson K. Chapin, Jr., of the County of Greenville, State of South Carolina, my attorney-in-fact for me and in my name and stead and on my behalf to execute any and all documents and instruments and to do any and all acts, deeds and things as fully as I might or could do if personally present. By way of illustration, but not of limitation, of my attorney-in-fact's powers, such powers shall include the following: to demand, claim and sue for any amounts due me and receipt for same; to compromise, arbitrate or otherwise adjust claims in favor of or against me; to sell, lease and mortgage real estate and personal property and to execute and deliver such deeds, mortgages, leases, bills of sale, notes, transfers and other instruments in writing as he may deem advisable: to borrow money and if required to do so, secure the same by collateral or mortgage; to employ counsel and other agents as he may deem advisable in the handling of my affairs; to write checks on and withdraw from any or all funds which I may have in a checking account, savings account or other type of deposit in any bank, savings and loan association, building and loan association, United States Post Office or elsewhere; to buy, sell and cash any certificates of deposit or other evidence of deposit in any bank, savings and loan association or building and loan association; to participate in the liquidation, reorganization, consolidation or other financial readjustment of any corporation or business in which I shall be financially interested; to appear and vote and otherwise act as my proxy or representative at any and all meetings of stockholders and to sign and execute any proxies or other instruments in connection therewith; to endorse and sign drafts, checks, money orders, dividend checks, bonds and all other type instruments for the payment of money; to buy and sell common stock, preferred stock or shares of any and all types in any and all corporations and in so doing, to execute and deliver transfer instruments, certifications and such other instruments as may be deemed necessary or advisable; to prepare and file income tax returns; and to do any and all other acts and things whether related to the specific powers set forth in this illustration or not.

I hereby ratify and confirm any and all acts of whatsoever nature and whatsoever kind that my said attorney-in-fact may perform, or has performed, in my name.

This power of attorney shall not be affected by physical disability or mental incompetence of the principal, which renders the principal incapable of managing her own estate. Anyone dealing with my said attorney-in-fact may rely fully and completely upon the executed original or any executed copy of this power of attorney or upon any record of the same recorded in the R.M.C. Office for Greenville County, or elsewhere, until actual receipt of written notice signed by me of its revocation or until actual receipt of notice of my death.

In the event of my physical disability or my mental incompetence, which renders me incapable of managing my own estate, my said attorney-in-fact shall not be required to file an inventory of all deposits, choses in action and personal property with any court and shall not be required to post a surety bond with any court.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 9th day of June, 1982.

Mrs. Hallie Chapin (SEAL)
Hallie Chapin

Signed, sealed, published and delivered by the within named Hallie Chapin as and for her Power of Attorney, in the presence of us, who, at her request and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto
