RE: Jane Daniel's Re-Appointment to Commission on Alcohol and Drug Abuse

Dear Ms. McCaskill,

I write on behalf of the Program and Administration Committee of the Greenville County Commission on Alcohol and Drug Abuse (GCCADA) to support County Council's reappointment of Jane Daniel to this Commission.

During Ms. Daniel's current term of service on the Commission she voluntarily participated in the work of the Program and Administration Committee. She did this willingly, with obvious dedication and good attendance, because she is one of the natural leaders who lives GCCADA's mission in word and deed.

Ms. Daniel's keen and thoughtful attention to the matters that came before this committee was demonstrated by the insightful comments and questions she raised during committee meetings. She is discerning, forthright, and enthusiastically engaged in all the committee's affairs. This quality of participation is very valuable in an organization such as ours, which is entrusted to serve the general public and must therefore continuously and candidly assess its strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and challenges. The manner and spirit in which Ms. Daniel interacts with others on this committee reveal her character to be community-minded, respectful of others, creative in problem solving, collaborative in team-work, and independent in thought.

We need Jane Daniel to remain on this team! Please circulate this letter of recommendation to all the Members of County Council. I ask them to reappoint Jane to the Commission without any hesitation, so she may continue to play the vital roles she plays both on our Committee and on GCCADA, at large.

Very truly yours,

Audrey Pasin
