Field of Study: Education

Volunteer Experience (Please list and describe): For the past seven years I have been a volunteer instructor with the Osher Lifelong Learning program at Furman, teaching writing—memoir and narrative nonfiction— to adults who want to capture their own stories or those of others.

Describe your understanding of the position for which you are applying.

To oversee the general management of the library, to make policy for its direction to thrive and best serve the community, and to advocate for it as an essential service for a growing, thriving, literate community.

What specific skills do you believe you could contribute as a member of this board or commission?

First is my belief in the vital role a public library plays in the community through the services it offers, which are available to all. I have been involved in education most of my life: taught adults to read through a literacy program in VT, taught at the junior and senior high levels, and presently with the OLLI program.

I am also a writer and author (actually have a book in our library), whose passion began with the books my parents bought from every door-to-door salesman and continued to grow with my discoveries on our library's shelves. I have long enjoyed library services and now feel a responsibility to be a part of its process.
