Dear Sir

On the day of May 1923 you entered into a contract with me for the purchase of Lots Nos. 11-30 and 51 of the H. J. Daiglass Estate property, situate in the County and State aforesaid, and agreed therein after having paid One Hundred and Fifty Dollars on the purchase price of Eight Hundred Eighty five Dollars to pay the remainder in installments of Five Dollars on each lot on the first day of each consecutive month thereafter, beginning with the first day of June 1923.

Request has heretofore been sent you for payments as per the contract. In accordance with the agreement contained in said contract, which is recorded in Vol. 100 of Deeds, at page 26, in R.M.C. Office for said County and State, I hereby exercise the option contained therein to declare said contract void, and do hereby recede and take possession of said lots, and you have no further interest or estate therein.

Very truly yours,

Harry Lee Chapman
