Power of Attorney.

Know all men by these Presents, That I, Minnie B. Rutledge, do and have hereby nominated, constituted and appointed J. D. Rutledge, as my lawful attorney, hereby vesting in said attorney full, absolute and complete power to do any and all things with any property which I own, which I myself could do were I then present and acting, including the powers hereby conferred upon said attorney, but being merely descriptive thereof, and in no way do I intend to limit said powers in enumerating them.

I confer upon said attorney the power to sell and convey any property which I now own, or may hereafter own, and to receive in payment therefor either cash, mortgages, or any other security which my attorney thinks wise, and to reinvest said receipts, or sell and dispose of them at his will; to trade or exchange said property, and to mortgage, pledge or otherwise use said property as security for the procurement of any loan or loans which he thinks advisable; to rent and lease said property, and to collect for same, and to do any and all other things which in his discretion seem wise.

This Power of Attorney to continue in full force and virtue until revoked by me in writing, and this instrument recalled.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 22nd day of March, 1934, A. D.

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of

Velva Richbourg, (Witness)

Frances Brown (Witness)
