

"Agreement"

County of Greenville, }
State of South Carolina. }

Whereas, I, J. W. Jones of Greenville County, State of South Carolina, having invented a certain new and useful checking device to be applied to automatic looms and whereas, J. W. Jones, am the owner of one-third interest in the above named checking device I for and in consideration of the sum of three hundred dollars to me in hand paid do hereby sell and assign unto R. J. Rowley a one-half interest of my one-third part equal to a one-sixth interest in said patent and device. Be it hereby known that I, R. J. Rowley, for a consideration of three hundred dollars agree to purchase from the above J. W. Jones a one-half interest of his one-third part of the above named checking device.

E. L. Field,
Clark M. Kinney,

J. W. Jones,
R. J. Rowley.

Personally appeared E. L. Field who being sworn says that he saw J. W. Jones and R. J. Rowley sign the above instrument of writing and that he with Clark M. Kinney witnessed the execution thereof.

Sworn to before me this
9th day of Nov. 1934,
Hon. R. Whitmire,
N. P. for S. C.

E. L. Field.

Agreement Recorded November 10th. 1934 at 11:10 a. m.