Know all Men by these presents, That I, Harry Cannon, as Executor of the Estate of Hattie Cannon Glenn, deceased

in the State aforesaid, in consideration of the sum of Five Hundred and no/100 Dollars to paid by T. J. Glenn in the State aforesaid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, sold and released, and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell and release unto the said

T. J. Glenn,

All that piece, parcel ~~or lot~~ ^{and strip} of land in Township, Greenville County, State of South Carolina, in the City of Greer and being located at the northwest corner of Cannon and Jason Streets, the same being a strip of land four feet in width and 258.6 feet in length. This lot or strip of land is bounded on the south by Jason Street, on the East by Cannon Street, on the north by property now or formerly of Switzer and is a portion of the property devised to Hattie Cannon Glenn by will of David Cannon, reference being made to said will on file in the Office of the Probate Court for Greenville County. The said lot or strip of land fronts four feet on the western side of Cannon Street and 258.6 feet on the northern side of Jason Street and is designated on the Block Book for Greenville County as Lot 12.1, Block 11, Page G-29.

A reference is made to the Decree of the Court of Common Pleas in the case of Harry Cannon, Individually and as Executor of the Estate of Hattie Cannon Glenn, deceased, plaintiff, vs. T. J. Glenn, The Methodist Memorial Church of Greer, S. C. and Ephworth Orphanage of Columbia, S. C., defendants, as evidenced by Judgment Roll #P-3304 on file in the office of the Clerk of Court for Greenville County but the above described property was not sold at public sale and this conveyance is made pursuant to authority to the Executor under the will of Hattie Cannon Glenn, deceased, as shown by will on file in the Office of the Probate Court for Greenville County in Apartment 584, File 17.
