

And I hereby declare that any act or thing lawfully done hereunder by my said attorney shall be binding on myself, and my heirs, legal and personal representatives, and assigns whether the same shall have been done before or after my death, or other revocation of this instrument, unless and until reliable intelligence or notice thereof shall have been received by my said attorney; and whether or not I, the grantor of this instrument, shall have been reported or listed, either officially or otherwise, as "missing in action" as that phrase is used in military parlance, it being the intendment hereof that such status designation shall not bar my attorney from fully and completely exercising and continuing to exercise any and all powers and rights herein granted, and that such report of "missing in action" shall neither constitute or be interpreted as constituting notice of my death nor operate to revoke this instrument.

The terms "estate", "affairs" and "property", as used herein include and shall include at all times and places and under all conditions, real, personal and mixed property of every kind and description whatsoever and wheresoever situated, and all buildings, structures, improvements, fixtures, vehicles, appliances, accessories, furnishings, equipment, choses in action, equities, priorities, permits, rations, quotas, rights of way, mineral and oil rights, water rights, easements, licenses, future interests, reversions, remainders, and all other kinds of property or property rights whatsoever, and every interest, title, equity, tenement, hereditament, appurtenance, right, claim, demand, or action therein and thereunto appertaining, and whether said property or property rights be tangible or intangible, jointly or severally owned, or now or hereafter acquired.

I do hereby revoke any and all former powers of attorney by me heretofore made.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 5th day of February, 1953.
