CONSENT TO RELOCATION OF
 LOT LINE

WHEREAS, Mary G. Pickens is the owner of Lots 49 and 50 as shown on the plat of Hudson Acres made by J. C. Hill, June, 1950, recorded in Plat Book Y, Page 39, and

WHEREAS, although both lots were intended as individual building lots, Lot 50, because of its shape, is not large enough for a suitable house, and

WHEREAS, Lot 49 has more space than is necessary for a suitable house and the said Mary G. Pickens has requested permission to move the dividing line westwardly 20 feet, and

WHEREAS, Paragraph 3 of the protective covenants for Hudson Acres vests in the undersigned committee the authority to permit the relocation of said side line,

NOW, THEREFORE, the undersigned committee for Hudson Acres does hereby consent to the relocation of the boundary line between Lots 49 and 50 as shown on said plat by moving it westwardly a distance of 20 feet so as to take 20 feet from the width of Lot 49 and add it to the width of Lot 50.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF we have hereunto set our hands and seals at Greenville, S. C., this 6th day of August, 1959.
