PERSONALLY appeared before me Richard H. Benson, who, being duly sworn, made oath as follows: that heretofore on May 7, 1962 there was recorded a deed of A. M. Stone, et al., etc. to Robert L. and Edith E. Dreyfus in Vol. 697, page 445; that the affiant is an attorney at law representing Mr. and Mrs. Dreyfus; that the names of the grantees was affixed in his office, and purely through scrivener's error one of the grantee's names was incorrect, there being to the affiant's knowledge no such person as Edith E. Dreyfus; that the deed should correctly be to Robert L. and Sylvia K. Dreyfus; that Sylvia K. Dreyfus is known to the affiant as the one lawful wife of Robert L. Dreyfus; that loan application has been made in the names of Robert L. Dreyfus and Sylvia K. Dreyfus, husband and wife; that the correct indexing of this deed does not affect any other records concerning this property; that the scrivener's error has been corrected by the office of the affiant, and the deed now correctly reads to Robert L. and Sylvia K. Dreyfus.

Sworn to before me this
12th day of June, 1962.
