

notice, the United States may cause the same to be done at the expense of the grantee, provided, however, that if directed to reconstruct its facilities underground the grantee may, at its option, in lieu of taking such action, wholly remove its facilities from lands of the United States as described herein, at which time the right granted herein shall cease but the restoration obligation set forth in Condition No. 12 hereof shall remain.

11. That this easement may be terminated by the Secretary of the Army upon reasonable notice to the grantee if the Secretary of the Army shall determine that the right-of-way hereby granted interferes with the use or disposal of the said land or any part thereof by the United States, or it may be forfeited and annulled by declaration of the Secretary of the Army for failure, neglect, or refusal by the grantee fully and promptly to comply with any and all of the conditions of this grant, or for nonuse for a period of two years, or for abandonment.

12. That upon the expiration, termination, or forfeiture and annulment of this grant, the grantee shall, without expense to the United States, and within such time as the Secretary of the Army may indicate, remove said facilities from said land and restore the premises hereby authorized to be used and occupied to a condition satisfactory to the said officer. In the event the grantee shall fail, neglect, or refuse to remove the said facilities and so restore the premises, the United States shall have the option either to take over the said facilities as the property of the United States without compensation therefor, or to remove said facilities and perform the restoration work as aforesaid at the expense of the grantee, and in no event shall the grantee have any claim for damages against the United States, or its officers or agents, on account of the taking over of said facilities or on account of their removal.

13. That the United States reserves the right to flood any portion of the relocated right-of-way and facilities of the grantee which are located below elevation 670 feet within the herein described premises.
