VOL 892 PAGE 500

We, Carl W. Owens, Jr. and Lucy V. Owens, of the County of Greenville, State of South Carolina, hereby grant and give permission to our beloved Aunt and Uncle, PEARL M. HALL and OLLIE L. HALL, the right to live in our dwelling located on a twelve (12) acre tract of land on the East side of the Old Pelzer Road near Piedmont, South Carolina, commonly known as the Pearl Wade Young place, so long as they may live or so long as they shall desire to, and if one or the other pre-deceases the other, then the surviving one also has the same right to live in said dwelling as long as he or she may live, or desire to do so. This being without any compensation whatsoever on the part of Pearl M. Hall and Ollie L. Hall other than their making minor repairs and keeping the house and yard clean and in an orderly manner.

This contract being given to Pearl M. Hall and Ollie L. Hall out of consideration and love for them.

Dated at Piedmont, S. C.
this 31st day of October, 1969.
