The South Carolina National Bank
Greenville
South Carolina

Gentlemen:

Floyd L. Swords died intestate November 24, 1957, leaving as his only heirs at law, his wife, Rose Lee P. Swords, and four children, Sherwin R. Swords, Floyd Leeman Swords, Nelson A. Swords, and Linda S. Tolley. At the time of his death he was seized and possessed of ten acres of land on Pelham Road in Greenville County, South Carolina, upon which there was and is now situate, a house.

This house is presently used as the residence of Sherwin R. Swords and is in need of repair. The purpose of this letter is to request and authorize The South Carolina National Bank to lend Sherwin R. Swords an amount not exceeding $1,800.00 to be used for improvements on the house.

This letter is issued as an inducement to The South Carolina National Bank to make this loan with the understanding that the Bank will look to none of the undersigned, other than Sherwin R. Swords, for collection in the event of default.
