

of the grantors, and to provide one (1) share for the children, as a class, of each child of the grantors, provided, however, if any child of the grantors does not have any children, then the share which would be allotted to that child's children as a class shall remain with that child giving him an additional share of the trust corpus. Each share shall not thereafter constitute nor be administered by the Trustee as a separate trust. Whenever a new child is born to the grantors' children, Duke K. McCall, Jr., Douglas H. McCall, John Richard McCall and Michael W. McCall, it shall join the class of grandchildren entitled to the share of the corpus herein set forth above.

3. The Trustee shall hold, manage, invest and reinvest the property of the trusts and shall collect and receive the income therefrom, and after deducting all necessary expenses incident to the administration of the trusts, shall dispose of the corpus and income of the trusts as follows:

- (a) The Trustee shall distribute the net income of the trust annually, proportionately to each share of the trust corpus as herein set forth above.
- (b) The Trustee shall in his discretion distribute the corpus of the trust on a pro rata share basis as he shall deem it necessary.
- (c) In the event of the death of any one of the grantors' children who has three (3) shares of the trust corpus before the distribution of corpus and/or distribution of income, then those three (3) shares of that child shall be distributed on a pro rata basis to the remaining shares; in the event of the death of one of the grantors' children with two (2) or less shares of the trust corpus before the distribution of corpus and/or

(Continued on next page)