U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT

COLUMBIA, S. C.

Complaint # _____

MOTION FOR AUTHORITY TO COMPROMISE

TO THE HONORABLE J. BRATTON DAVIS, BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Petitioner would show the Court that:

1. He is Trustee of the above bankrupt, duly qualified and acting.
2. On October 19, 1978, he, as attorney for the Trustee, commenced the above-encaptioned action against Wendy's International, Inc. Reference is carved to the Complaint and Answer in this adversary proceeding for the issues involved herein.
3. He has received an offer of compromise from Wendy's International, Inc., through its attorney Larry D. Estridge, Esquire. A copy of this offer of settlement, in writing, is hereto attached and made a part hereof.
4. The terms of said settlement are that:
  - a. your Trustee will convey all of his right, title and interest to that certain parcel of realty, subject of this action, to Wendy's International, Inc.;
  - b. for such property rights, the Estate will receive the sum of $6,500;
  - c. Wendy's International, Inc., will withdraw any and all claims against this bankruptcy, the bankruptcy of James C. Dawkins (husband of this bankrupt), and the bankruptcy of James C. Dawkins, Inc., (a corporation in bankruptcy owned jointly by this bankrupt and her bankrupt spouse).
