

to be held for ten days to the examination of any member, and shall be produced and kept at the time and place of election during the whole time thereof, and subject to the inspection of any member who may be present.

7. Special meetings of the members, for any purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute or by the Articles of Incorporation, may be called by the president, and shall be called by the president or secretary at the request in writing of a majority of the board of directors, or at the request in writing of twenty members. Such request shall state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting.

8. Written notice of a special meeting of members, stating the time, place and object of such meeting and the specific action to be taken thereat, shall be served upon or mailed to each member entitled to vote thereat at such address as appears on the books of the corporation, at least five days before such meeting.

9. Business transacted at all special meetings shall be confined to the objects and actions to be taken as stated in the notice.

10. Fifty-one (51%) percent of the total number of members of the corporation, present in person or represented by proxy, shall be requisite and shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the members for the transaction of business except as otherwise provided by statute, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these by-laws. If, however, such quorum shall not be present, or represented at any meeting of the members, the members entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted at the meeting originally called.

11. When a quorum is present at any meeting, the vote of a majority of the members present in person or represented by proxy shall decide
