in and about my estate, property, and affairs as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as I might or could do in my own proper person if personally present, the above specially enumerated powers being in aid and exemplification of the full, complete and general power herein granted and not in limitation or definition therein; and hereby ratifying all that my said attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of these presents.

This power of attorney shall not be affected by physical disability or mental incompetence of the principal which renders the principal incapable of managing his own estate. It is the intent of the principal that the authority hereby conferred upon the attorney-in-fact herein designated shall be exercisable notwithstanding the physical disability or mental incompetence of the principal. All acts done by the attorney-in-fact pursuant to this power during any period of disability or mental incompetence shall have the same effect, and shall enure to the benefit of and bind the principal or his heirs, devisees, legatees and personal representatives, as if principal were mentally competent and not disabled.

The attorney-in-fact herein designated shall be under no obligation to post a bond, file an inventory with the probate court, or account to the probate court for any acts performed in the exercise of, and pursuant to, the powers hereby conferred upon him.
