

paper, receipts, withdrawal receipts and deposit instruments relating to accounts or deposits in, or certificates of deposit of, bonds, savings and loan or other institutions or associations, proofs of loss, evidences of debts, releases, and satisfaction of mortgages, liens, judgments, security agreements and other debts and obligations and such other instruments in writing of whatever kind and nature as may be necessary or proper in the exercise of the rights and powers herein granted:

7. I grant to said attorney in fact full power and authority to do, take, and perform all and every act and thing whatsoever requisite, proper, or necessary to be done, in the exercise of any of the rights and powers herein granted, as fully to all intents and purposes as I might or could do if personally present, with full power of substitution or revocation, hereby ratifying and confirming all that said attorney in fact, or his substitute or substitutes, shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of this power of attorney and the rights and powers herein granted.

8. This instrument is to be construed and interpreted as a general power of attorney. The enumeration of specific items, rights, acts or powers herein is not intended to, nor does it, limit or restrict, and is not to be construed or interpreted as limiting or restricting, the general powers herein granted to said attorney in fact.

9. The rights, powers and authority of said attorney in fact herein granted shall commence and be in full force and effect on September 3, 1981, and such rights, powers, and authority shall remain in full force and effect thereafter until cancelled by me in writing. No cancellation shall be effective as to any person relying on this power of attorney unless such person has received actual notice of its cancellation; except as to any transaction by my attorney in fact involving my real estate record notice, filed in the County in which said real estate is situate, shall take the place of actual notice. This power of attorney shall not be affected by physical disability or mental incompetence of the principal which renders the principal incapable of managing his own estate.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 3rd day of September, 1981.

Sarah G. Taylor
