WAYA

This matter comes before me on July 6, 1983, as a result of a Summons and Complaint served upon Defendants by Plaintiffs. This matter was referred to me by Order of the Clerk of Court for Greenville County for the purpose of taking testimony and issuing a final Order pursuant to the Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976, Section 15-31-10 as amended.

The Defendant, Dianne Railton accepted service on May 17, 1983, and the Defendant Samuel O. Dawson, III, on May 20, 1983. As can be seen by the Affidavit of Defaults of H. Michael Spivey, Plaintiffs' attorney, both Defendants are in default since neither has filed any responsive pleadings.

At the call of the case James D. Woznick, one of the Plaintiffs, appeared with his attorney, H. Michael Spivey. Neither Defendant appeared at the hearing.

The testimony evidenced that the Plaintiffs and Defendants entered into a Bond for Title dated January 17, 1979, whereby the Plaintiffs were selling a tract of land containing 29.92 acres on Beaver Dam Road, Greenville County, South Carolina, to Defendants.
