

Vol 1104 Page 921

Bramlett, Trustee, and her responsibilities and duties as Trustee ended without liability to third parties for any actions while serving nor liability for any taxes, liens, assessments or other related matters.

(3) That any actions by the Trustee from September 28, 1982 to the date of the signing of this Extension Agreement, in connection with administration of this Trust are hereby ratified and are valid just as if the Trust had never inadvertently terminated.

(4) That any Trustee under this Agreement shall serve for purposes of convenience of administration of various parcels of real property only, that any Trustee under this Agreement receives no compensation for such service and likewise shall be relieved of liability to third parties for any actions while serving as Trustee and shall not be responsible for taxes, liens, judgments or related matters.

(5) That any Trustee serves as such for the sole benefit of W. H. Alford and Charles Robinson Co., Inc., and for no others.

WITNESS our hands and seals this 15th day of August, 1983.

WITNESSES:
W. H. Alford
Karen R. Crutch

CHARLES ROBINSON CO. INC.
By Charles E. Robinson, Jr.
Charles E. Robinson, Jr., President

W. H. Alford
W. H. Alford

Doris G. Bramlett as Trustee
Doris G. Bramlett, Trustee

(CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE) (Term Expires 12/31/83)

0921

4328 RV 21