

I do damnify you for the delivery of the said goods to Fuller in case any accident should happen to the said goods, though I conceive there is not the least danger and the Freight will be putting a penny in my pocket, as I purchased the Schooner for that Purpose. if you know of any other persons on Potowmack or any place convenient to me that have goods on board my Snow deliver them to Fuller in the same manner as before mentioned shall come over to Baltimore in few days if possible I long to know how your outfit was in London, Mr. Bidwell has not gave me a just Acc^t of it yet, I know the Snow must be very bare when she arriv'd in London Daniel Ordill I knew to be an Indolent wastful person though was oblig'd to bear with him at that time but I hope shall find an attestation if I live to come on board from the character I've had of you since we parted at board I am Sir your sincere friend & wellwisher.
