The State of South Carolina. It now all men by this Present, that I Elias Earle did on the 28th day of October last sell and convey to Henry Middleton a tract of Land in Greenville District, near Greenville Courthouse on Richland Creek. And whereas, it evidently appears from the original marks and boundary thereof, that a small corner lying lying between the said Tract and Land of S. Alston (which owing to some irregularity in the original deed was not conveyed with the aforesaid Land) doth in justice belong to the said Tract, to wit beginning on a red Oak Corner running thence S. 11 W. to a White Oak on the bank of a branch, thence up the meanders of a branch one chain & 90 links to a Stake and poplar, near where Retcher's old path crosses it, thence along a line of marked trees, as originally made between Samuel J. Alston and Nat. Stokes to the beginning, supposed to contain one & half acre
