

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA      FILED      ✓ VOL 20 PAGE 1942
   GREENVILLE, S.C.      )
COUNTY OF GREENVILLE      Oct 14 9 29 AM '87      IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
   JONNIE S. TANKERLEY
   R.J.C.

Jack C. Payne, doing business      ) as CENTURY PAINTING CONTRACTORS      )

Petitioner      )

- versus -      )

Stanley Johnson, doing business      ) as JOHNSON HOMES, INC. AND      ) Community Care Properties, Inc.      ) doing business as Ridgeview      ) Community Care Homes      )

Respondents      )

NOTICE

OF/AND

MATERIALMAN'S LIEN

PERSONALLY appeared before me, Jack C. Payne, who, being sworn, desposes and states that he is the owner of Century Painting Contractors, a business operating under and pursuant to the laws of the State of South Carolina, with it's principal place of business in Taylors, S.C.

That on or about June 3, 1987 through July 24, 1987, Stanley Johnson did contract with, the Petitioner, to paint the houses located on Memorial Drive, Greer, S.C.

That the materials and labor were supplied with authorization from Stanley Johnson, to the site noted, in Greenville county, which real property is more fully described here: 4 acres on Memorial Drive, Greer, S.C.

That the unpaid balance due under contract and agreement of $1,280.80 as shown by the statemet of account attached and incorporated here by reference.

10-14 5858

3

500