Bonds owned or held by or for the account of the Company or any corporation more than 50% of the voting stock of which is held by the Company shall not be deemed outstanding for any purpose of this Article. Every such meeting of bondholders shall be held in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York.

SECTION 10.02. Notice of every meeting of bondholders, setting forth the purpose of such meeting in reasonable detail, shall be given by publishing the same at least four times in an authorized newspaper, the first publication to be not less than thirty and not more than sixty days prior to the date fixed for the meeting. A copy of such notice shall also be mailed by the Company at least thirty and not more than sixty days prior to the date fixed for the meeting to the registered holders of Bonds (including coupon Bonds registered as to principal) to be affected by the business submitted to the meeting, at their last address appearing upon the bond registry books, but failure to give such notice by mailing shall not affect the validity of any such meeting or of any action taken thereat.

SECTION 10.03. The Corporate Trustee may (for the purpose of enabling the bondholders to be present and vote at any meeting without producing their Bonds, and of enabling them to be present and vote at any such meeting by proxy), make and may from time to time vary, such regulations as it shall think fit for the issuance of a certificate pursuant to Article Nine hereof entitling the persons depositing or exhibiting their Bonds to be present and vote or to appoint proxies to represent them and vote for them at any such meeting and at any adjournment thereof in the same way as if the persons so present and voting either personally or by proxy were the actual bearers of the Bonds in respect of which such certificates shall have been issued notwithstanding any transfer of such Bonds subsequent to the issuance of such certificates, and any regulations so made shall be binding and effective and the votes given in accordance therewith shall be valid and
