

I. All and singular the following railroad property of the former Charleston and Western Carolina Railway Company now owned by the Company:

A. MAIN LINES EXTENDING FROM:

1. Port Royal, Beaufort County, South Carolina, to Augusta, Richmond County, Georgia, a distance of 112.76 miles.
2. Augusta, Richmond County, Georgia, to Spartanburg, Spartanburg County, South Carolina, a distance of 133.57 miles.

B. BRANCH LINES EXTENDING FROM:

1. McCormick, McCormick County, South Carolina, to Anderson, Anderson County, South Carolina, a distance of 58.22 miles.
2. Laurens, Laurens County, South Carolina, to Greenville, Greenville County, South Carolina, a distance of 36.34 miles.

C. All and singular the terminal facilities and industrial tracks of the former Charleston and Western Carolina Railway Company now owned by the Company.

D. All and singular the tracks, buildings, bridges, docks, wharves and all other railroad property and appurtenances, additional to the main line and branch lines, terminal facilities and industrial tracks used as a part of or in connection with any of said main line or branch lines or terminal facilities and industrial tracks of the former Charleston and Western Carolina Railway Company now owned by the Company.

II. Any and all other railroads, lines of railroad, railroad property and appurtenances, docks and wharves and appurtenances, franchises, rights and privileges of the former Charleston and Western Carolina Railway Company now owned by the Company.

III. Any and all rights of way, lands, fixtures, structures, and improvements of whatever kind or description and wherever situated, of the former Charleston and Western Carolina Railway Company now owned by the Company.