

It is agreed that if the United States Government or any instrumentality thereof makes to the holder of said note any payments on account of its guarantee thereof, in that event such payments shall be subordinated to the amount due the holder of said note, but the same shall, so far as the makers of said note are concerned, be and remain a part of the unpaid balance of said note.

The makers of said note reserve the right to pay the loan in part or in full at any time without penalty.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Mortgagor has hereinafter set his hand and seal the 18th day of January, A.D. 1947
