

such cash remaining unclaimed by the holders of such Bonds for six years after the date the same shall have become payable, shall be paid by the Trustee to the Obligors, upon the written order of a Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer, and the holder of such Bonds shall thereafter be entitled to look only to the Obligors for the payment thereof; provided that the Trustee, before being required to make such payment to the Obligors, may at the expense of the Obligors, cause notice that such cash has not been so called for and that after a date named therein it will be returned to the Obligors, to be published once a week for three (3) successive calendar weeks in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the city or in one such newspaper in each of the cities where such Bonds are payable.

Section 3.04. In case of any call of Bonds for redemption hereunder, the Bonds so called for redemption shall, on the redemption date stated in the call, become and be due and payable at their redemption price, and from and after said date interest shall cease to accrue on said Bonds unless payment to the holders thereof is refused upon presentation at the place where the principal thereof is expressed to be payable, pursuant to such call, due notice thereof under the terms of this Indenture having been given. The withholding of payments, during such time as may be reasonably required by the Trustee or the Obligors to satisfy itself as to the right of any demandant to receive the same, shall not be deemed a refusal to pay.

Section 3.05. Upon the surrender of any Bonds so called for redemption, at the place or any of the places where the principal thereof is expressed to be payable, the Obligors shall pay or cause to be paid to the holders thereof the redemption price aforesaid.

Section 3.06. A certificate of any officer of the Obligors as to the giving of proper notice of such redemption shall be furnished to the Trustee on or before the date of redemption and such certificate shall be full and complete authority to said Trustee for any action to be taken by it pursuant to this Article.
