

(i) The term "authorized newspaper", when used with reference to a particular municipality or county, shall mean a newspaper printed in the English language and customarily published at least once on each business day and of general circulation in such municipality or county unless no such newspaper shall be published once on each business day, in which case such a newspaper published at least once in each week may be substituted.

Whenever successive publications in an authorized newspaper are required by any provision of this Indenture, such successive publications may be made in the same or in different authorized newspapers.

In case by reason of the temporary or permanent suspension of publication of any newspaper, or by reason of any other cause, it shall be impossible for the Company or the Trustee, as the case may be, to make publication of any notice required hereby in a newspaper or newspapers as herein provided, then such publication, in lieu thereof as the Trustee, or the Company with the approval of the Trustee, shall make, shall constitute a sufficient publication of such notice. Such publication shall, so far as may be, approximate the terms and conditions of the publication in lieu of which it is given.

(k) The term "calendar week" shall mean any period of seven consecutive days commencing with a Sunday.

(l) The term "subsidiary" shall mean any corporation, of which the Company directly or indirectly owns or controls at the time at least a majority of the outstanding stock having by the terms thereof ordinary voting power to elect a majority of the Board of Directors of such corporation, irrespective of whether or not at the time stock of any other class or classes of such corporation shall have or might have voting power by reason of the happening of any contingency.

§ 1.04. (a) The term "additional property" shall mean any property (including franchises, permits and any similar rights) purchased, constructed, or otherwise acquired by the Company after the date of the execution hereof properly chargeable to its fixed property accounts, situated in the States of North Carolina or South Carolina or in any State contiguous thereto, and used or useful to the Company in the business (herein called the "Gas Business") of furnishing gas for heat,

(g) Each certificate (or application or written request or statement of the Company where no separate certificate of the Company is provided for) or opinion furnished to the Trustee with respect to compliance with a condition or covenant provided for in this Indenture, shall include (1) a statement that the person making such certificate or giving such opinion has read such covenant or condition and the definitions, if any, herein contained relative thereto; (2) a brief statement as to the nature and scope of the examination or investigation upon which the statements or opinions contained in such certificate or opinion are based; (3) a statement that, in the opinion of such person, he has made such examination or investigation as is necessary to enable him to express an informed opinion as to whether or not such covenant or condition has been complied with; and (4) a statement as to whether or not, in the opinion of such person, such condition or covenant has been complied with. Any certificate of the Company or opinion of counsel which is herein expressly required to contain a statement as to compliance with conditions precedent shall also state that all conditions precedent, if any, provided for in this Indenture relating to the action to be taken by the Trustee upon the request or direction in connection with which such certificate or opinion is furnished have been complied with.

The acceptance by the Trustee of a certificate or opinion of an engineer or accountant shall be sufficient evidence that the signer or signers have been selected or approved by, and are satisfactory to, the Trustee.

(h) The terms "responsible officer" and "responsible officers" of the Trustee shall mean and include the chairman of the Board of Directors, the president, every vice president, every assistant vice president, the treasurer, every assistant treasurer, the cashier and every assistant cashier, the secretary and every assistant secretary, every trust officer, every assistant trust officer, and any other officer of the Trustee with supervisory powers who customarily performs functions similar to those performed by the foregoing individuals or to whom any corporate trust matter is referred because of his knowledge of, and familiarity with, a particular subject.
