

Whereas, under the date of May 31, 1950, R. L. Hunter, gave to the Fidelity Federal Savings & Loan Association his promissory note in the sum of seven thousand and no/100 dollars ($7,000.00) at the interest rate of 6% per annum and payable in monthly installments of fifty nine and 07/100, ($59.07) and secured payment of said note by his certain mortgage recorded in Volume 462, Page 391, RMC office, which mortgage pledges as security 2 certain separate tracts of land, described in deeds of record in the RMC office, Volume 193, Page 403 and Volume 287, page 345.

In consideration of the fact that said R. L. Hunter has now reduced the balance on the above note and mortgage as of this date to $5,000.00 and desires to release the first described parcel in the above mortgage, therefore,

In consideration of the said reduction in the debt, the Fidelity Federal Savings & Loan Association, Greenville, S. C., the owner and holder of said note and mortgage, seven thousand and no/100 dollars, ($7,000.00) dated May 31, 1950, does hereby release from the lien of said mortgage all of that portion of the land described therein which is described in detail in the deed recorded in Volume 193, Page 403, RMC office.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said Fidelity Federal Savings & Loan Association has caused the foregoing release to be signed by its duly authorized officers, M. M. Hewell, President, and Lottie West Galphin, Secretary, and the seal of the Corporation affixed hereto this the 29th day of June 1953.
