R. M. C. R E L E A S E

WHEREAS, on October 27, 1947, Woodside Cotton Mills Company (now Woodside Mills), a South Carolina corporation, executed its deed to Hoyt Anders, et al, as trustees for the Woodside Methodist Church and the Methodist Church of Greenville, South Carolina, conveying that lot of land hereinabove described, which deed is recorded in Deed Book 325 at Page 135, in the R. M. C. Office for Greenville County, and containing a provision and/or restriction that "the above described lot shall not be sold, leased, mortgaged or otherwise conveyed by the grantee, its successors or assigns, to any individual, corporation, association, or group of individuals, except with the consent in writing of the grantor, its successors or assigns but if said restriction shall be broken or violated by the grantee then the above described premises shall immediately and automatically revert to the grantor", and

WHEREAS, the said Woodside Methodist Church, for the purpose of effecting certain alterations, additions, and remodeling of the church building located on said lot, has negotiated a loan through Fidelity Federal Savings & Loan Association of Greenville and desires to execute to said building and loan association its note in the sum of $15,000.00, secured by a mortgage covering the premises described above, and as a condition to making the loan Fidelity Federal Savings & Loan Association has required that the mill consent to said loan and waive the rights of reverter, restrictions, and other provisions contained in said deed, and

WHEREAS, Woodside Mills is willing to consent to said loan and to waive and subordinate all of its said rights and reverter and other rights contained in said deed in favor of the lien of the note and mortgage to be executed by said church to the Fidelity Federal Savings & Loan Association of Greenville, S. C.,
