- (6) To use the loan evidenced by the note itself for purposes authorized by the Government.
- (7) To pay when due all taxes, liens, judgments, encumbrances and assessments lawfully attaching to or assessed against the property and promptly deliver to the Government without demand receipts evidencing such payments.
- (8) To keep the property insured as required by and under insurance policies approved by, delivered to, and retained by the Government.
- (9) To maintain improvements in good repair and make repairs required by the Government, operate the property in a good and husbandmanlike manner, comply with such farm conservation practices and farm and home management plans as the Government from time to time may prescribe, and not to abandon the property, or cause or permit waste, lessening or impairment of the security covered hereby, or, without the written consent of the Government, cut, remove, or lease any timber, gravel, oil, gas, shale, or other minerals except as may be necessary for ordinary domestic purposes.
- (10) To comply with all laws, ordinances, and regulations affecting the property.
- (11) To pay or reimburse the Government for expenses reasonably necessary, incidental to the protection of the lien and priority hereof and to the enforcement of or the compliance with the provisions herein and of the note and any supplementary agreement whether before or after default, including but not limited to costs of evidence of title to any survey of the property, costs of recording this and other instruments, attorneys' fees, trustees' fees, court costs, and expenses of advertising, selling, and conveying the property.
- (12) Neither the property nor any portion thereof or interest therein shall be leased, assigned, sold, transferred, or encumbered, voluntarily or otherwise, without the written consent of the Government. The Government shall have the sole and exclusive rights as mortgagor hereunder, including but not limited to the power to grant, consent, partial releases, subordinations, and satisfaction, and no insured holder shall have any right, title or interest in or to the lien or any benefits hereof.
- (13) At all reasonable times the Government and its agents may inspect the property to ascertain whether the covenants and agreements contained herein or in any supplementary agreement are being performed.
- (14) The Government may extend and defer the maturity of and renew and reamortize the debt evidenced by the note or any indebtedness to the Government secured hereby, release from liability to the Government any party to liable therein, release portions of the property from and subordinate the lien hereof, and waive any other rights hereunder, without affecting the lien or priority hereof or the liability to the Government of Borrower or any other party for payment of the note or indebtedness secured hereby except as specified by the Government in writing.
- (15) If at any time it shall appear to the Government that Borrower may be able to obtain a loan from a production credit association, a Federal land bank, or other responsible cooperative lending agency at reasonable rates and terms for loans for similar purposes and periods of time, Borrower will upon the Government's request apply for such loan up to such amount as sufficient amount to pay the note and any indebtedness secured hereby and to pay for any stock necessary to be purchased in a cooperative lending agency in connection with such loan.
- (16) Default hereunder shall constitute default under any other real estate, or under any personal property or other, security instrument held or insured by the Government and executed or assumed by Borrower, and default under any such other security instrument shall constitute default hereunder.
- (17) SHOULD DEFAULT occur in the performance or discharge of any obligation secured by this instrument, or should any one of the parties named as Borrower die or be declared incompetent, a bankrupt, or an insolvent, or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, the Government at its option, with or without notice, may (a) require the entire amount unpaid under the note and any indebtedness to the Government hereby secured immediately due and payable, (b) if the account of Borrower is in arrears pay reasonable expenses for repair or maintenance of and take possession of, operate, rent the property, resell, apply the proceeds of it and produce of this instrument, without notice of hearing of said application, (c) receive an appraisement of the property, with the usual powers of receivers in like cases, (d) foreclose this instrument as provided herein, (e) foreclose, or otherwise sue and all other rights and remedies provided herein or by present or future law.
- (18) The proceeds of forced sale shall be applied in the following order: (1) the payment of fair costs and expenses incident to enforcing or complying with the provisions herein, (2) any priorities required by law or a competent court to be so paid, (3) the debt evidenced by the note and all indebtedness to the Government secured hereby, (4) inferior liens of record required by law or a competent court to be so paid, (5) at the Government's option, any other indebtedness which is now owing or which may be incurred by the Government, and (6) any balance to Borrower. At first instance of sale, if all amounts due on the property, the Government and its agents may bid and purchase as a stranger and may pay the Government's share of the purchase price, retaining such an amount and debts of Borrower owing to or incurred by the Government, in the discretion of the Government.
- (19) Borrower recognizes that, pursuant to Federal law, the Government and not he, and his, and present or future State laws, (a) providing for valuation, appraisal, homestead exemption, or like privilege, (b) prohibiting maintenance of an action for a deficiency judgment or limiting the amount thereof in the case within which such action may be brought, (c) prescribing any other statute of limitations, (d) allowing any right of redemption, or possession following any foreclosure sale, or (e) limiting the conditions which the Government may by regulation impose, including the interest rate of loans made, or a condition of approving a transfer of the property to a new Borrower. Borrower expressly waives the benefit of any such State law.
- (20) If any part of the law by which this instrument is given shall be held invalid to finance the purchase, construction or repair of property to be used as an unoccupied dwelling, herein called "the dwelling," and if Borrower intends to sell or rent the dwelling and has obtained the Government's consent to do so, and neither Borrower nor any one authorized to act for him, will, after receipt of a bona fide offer, refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of the dwelling or will otherwise make unavailable or deny the dwelling to anyone because of race, color, religion, national origin, or sex, Borrower agrees as follows: (a) to take all actions, and will not, singly, jointly, or attempt to enforce any restrictive covenants or restrictions, in any way, to segregate, discriminate, or harass anyone.
- (21) This instrument shall be subject to the present regulations of the Farmers Home Administration, and to its future regulations not inconsistent with the express provisions hereof.
- (22) Notices given hereunder shall be sent by certified mail, unless otherwise required by law, addressed, unless and until some other address is designated in writing or given, in the case of the Government, Farmers Home Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, at Columbia, South Carolina, 29204, and in the case of Borrower, to him, at office address stated above.
- (23) If any provision of this instrument or application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity will not affect other provisions or applications of the instrument which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to that end the provisions hereof are declared to be severable.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Borrower has hereunto set Borrower's hand and seals the day and year first above written.
