J	To have and to hold, with all and singular the rights, members, hereditaments and appurtenances to the said premises belonging, unto said Mortgagee, provided always, and this instrument is made, executed, sealed and delivered upon the express condition that if the said Mortgagers shall pay in full to the said Mortgagee the above-described Note according to the terms thereof, and all other sums secured hereby, then this Mortgage shall cease, determine and be void, otherwise it shall remain in full force and virtue. Upon default in making any payment of said Note when the payment becomes due, then the entire sum remaining unpaid on said Note shall be due and payable by the exercise of the option of acceleration above described, and this Mortgage may be foreclosed as provided by law for the purpose of satisfying and paying the entire indebtedness secured hereby.
4	This mortgage is given to secure the payment of the above-described note, as well as all other sums and future advances which may hereafter be owing to Mortgagee by Mortgagors however evidenced. It is understood and agreed that the Mortgagee may from time to time make loans and advances to Mortgagors, all of which will be secured by this mortgage; provided however that the total amount of existing indebtedness and future advances outstanding at any one time may not exceed the maximum principal amount of $75,000, plus interest thereon, attorneys' fees, and court costs.
. á	The Mortgagors covenant that they exclusively possess and own said property free and clear of all encumbrances except as otherwise noted, and will warrant and defend the same against all persons except the Mortgagee. Any failure of the Mortgagee to enforce any of its rights or remedies hereunder shall not be a waiver of its rights to do so thereafter. Whenever the context so requires, plural words shall be construed in the singular.
