(19) To maintain improvements in good repair and make repairs required by the Government, operate the property in a good and sound manner, comply with such farm conservation practices and farm and home management plans as the Government from time to time may prescribe, and not to abandon the property, or cause or permit waste, lessening or impairment of the security covered hereby, or without the written consent of the Government, cut, remove, or lease any timber, gravel, oil, gas, coal, or other minerals except as may be necessary for ordinary domestic purposes.

(20) To comply with all laws, ordinances, and regulations affecting the property.

(21) To pay or reimburse the Government for expenses reasonably necessary or incidental to the protection of the land and property hereunder and to the enforcement of or the compliance with the provisions hereof and of the note and any supplementary agreement whether before or after default, including, but not limited to costs of evidence of title to any survey of the property, costs of recording this and other instruments, attorneys' fees, trustees' fees, court costs, and expenses of advertising, selling, and conveying the property.

(22) Neither the property nor any portion thereof or interest therein shall be leased, assigned, sold, transferred, or encumbered, voluntarily or otherwise, without the written consent of the Government. The Government shall have the sole and exclusive rights as mortgagor hereunder, including, but not limited to the power to grant consents, partial releases, subordinations, and satisfaction, and no mortgagor holder shall have any right, title or interest in or to the land or any benefits hereof.

(23) At all reasonable times the Government and its agents may inspect the property to ascertain whether the covenants and agreements contained hereunder or in any supplementary agreement are being performed.

(24) The Government may extend and defer the maturity of and renew and reamortize the debt evidenced by the note or any indebtedness to the Government secured hereby, release from liability to the Government any party so liable thereon, release portions of the property from and subordinate the liens hereof, and waive any other rights hereunder, without affecting the lien or priority hereof or the liability of the Government, of Borrower or any other party for payment of the note or indebtedness secured hereby except as specified by the Government in writing.

(25) If at any time it shall appear to the Government that Borrower may be able to obtain a loan from a production credit association, a Federal land bank, or other responsible cooperative or private credit source, at reasonable rates and terms for loans for similar purposes and periods of time, Borrower will, upon the Government's request, apply for and accept such loan in sufficient amount to pay the note and any indebtedness secured hereby and to pay for any stock necessary to be purchased in a cooperative lending agency in connection with such loan.

(26) Default hereunder shall constitute default under any other real estate, or under any personal property or other security instrument held or insured by the Government and executed or assumed by Borrower, and default under any such other security instrument shall constitute default hereunder.

(27) SHOULD DEFAULT occur in the performance or discharge of any obligation on this instrument or secured by this instrument, or should any one of the parties named as Borrower die or be declared incompetent, bankrupt, or insolvent, or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, the Government at its option, with or without notice, may (a) declare the entire amount unpaid under the note and any indebtedness to the Government hereby secured immediately due and payable, (b) for the account of Borrower incur and pay reasonable expenses for repair or maintenance of and take possession of, operate or rent the property, (c) upon application by it and production of this instrument, without notice of hearing of said application, have a receiver appointed for the property, with the usual powers of receivers in law cases, (d) foreclose this instrument as provided herein or by law, and (e) exercise any and all other rights and remedies provided hereof to present or future law.

At foreclosure or other sale of all or any part of the property, the Government and its agents may bid and purchase as a bidder and may pay the Government's share of the purchase price by crediting such amount to any debt or over claim to be incurred by the Government in the order prescribed above.

(29) Borrower agrees that the Government will not be bound by any provision of future State laws (or providing for valuation, appraisal, homestead or exemption of the property, or prohibiting maintenance of an action for a deficiency judgment or limiting the amount thereof to the time within which such action may be brought), or prescribing any other statute of limitations, or allowing any rights of redemption or possession following any foreclosure sale, or restricting the conditions which the Government may by regulation impose, including the interest rate it may charge, as a condition of approving a transfer of the property to a new Borrower. Borrower expressly waives the benefit of any such State law. Borrower hereby relinquishes, waives, and releases all rights, including or constituting, of descent, dower, and curtesy.

(30) If any part of the loan for which this instrument is given shall be used to finance the purchase, construction, or repair of property to be used as an owner-occupied dwelling, Borrower shall (the dwelling) and if Borrower intends to sell or rent the dwelling and has obtained the Government's consent to do so, (a) neither Borrower nor any one authorized to act for him, will, after receipt of a bona fide offer to buy or lease for the sale or rental of the dwelling, (b) will otherwise than lawfully convey the dwelling to another because of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin, and (c) Borrower renounces all moral and hereby disclaims any willful attempt to induce any restrictive covenant on dwelling relating to race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.
