

D. UNIFORM SECURITY INSTRUMENTS: CHECKS, BANK AND INVESTMENT

Uniform Covenant Form of the Securities Act which is attached to said instrument as follows:

15. Unified Security Instrument. Governing Law; Severability. This form of Security Instrument combines uniform requirements for national use and nonuniform requirements with limited variations by jurisdiction to constitute a uniform security instrument covering real property. This Security Instrument shall be governed by federal law and the law of the jurisdiction in which the Property is located. In the event that any provision or clause of this Security Instrument or the Note conflicts with applicable law, such conflict shall not affect other provisions of this Security Instrument or the Note which can be given effect without the conflicting provision, and to this end the provisions of this Security Instrument and the Note are intended to be severable.

E TRANSFER OF THE PROPERTY OR A BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN BORROWER

Uniform Covenant 17 of the Security Agreement is amended to read as follows:

17. Transfer of the Property or an interest in Borrower. If all or any part of the property or an interest therein is sold or transferred by Borrower for its benefit all interest in Borrower is sold or transferred and there is not a natural person or persons but is a corporation, partnership, trust or other legal entity; without Lender's prior written consent, excluding: (a) the creation of a lien or encumbrance subordinate to the Security Instrument which does not relate to a transfer at right of survivorship in the property, (b) the creation of a joint and several security interest for household appliances, (c) a transfer by devise, descent or by operation of law upon the death of a joint tenant or (d) the grant of any leasehold interest of three years or less not containing an option to purchase, Lender may, at Lender's option, declare all the sums secured by this Security Instrument to be immediately due and payable.

If Lentent receives such notice or demand, Lentent shall mail Borrower a copy of such notice or demand with paragraph 14 hereof. Such notice or demand provided for above shall be given 30 days from the time that notice or demand is mailed without which Borrower may pay the sums specified in such notice or demand. If such notice or demand to the express agent of Lentent is not received within such 30 day period, notice or demand will be deemed to have been given to Lentent at the address set forth in paragraph 14 hereof.

Holder and Transferee may have no knowledge of the foregoing unless to be submitted to the holder or transferee by Lender to evaluate the transaction. In that case, Lender's security will not be impacted and this instrument is a document of my consent or agreement to such transaction, and it is understood if interest is payable at the time of receipt of this Security Instrument at a rate acceptable to Lender and changes in the terms of the Note and this Security Instrument requested by Lender are made, including, for example, a written stipulation in the interest rate, a different final payment date, the loan, and addition of unpaid interest to principal; and the the transferor signs an assumption agreement that is acceptable to Lender and that obligates the transferee to keep all the promises and representations made in the Note and in this Security Instrument, as sufficient if requested by Lender. To the extent permitted by applicable law, I agree also to charge a reasonable fee, as a compensation for Lender's expense to the cost of transfer.

borrower will continue to be obligated under the Note and that Security interest and other releases contained in Exhibit A
