PERSONALLY appeared before me Richard W. Riley, who, being first duly sworn, states that he is attorney for the Sellers as indicated on the attached Agreement; that the Agreement concerns the sale and transfer of stock certificates upon which there is required a documentary stamp tax of 04¢ per hundred on said certificates; deponent states that he is informed and believes that the necessary documentary stamps have been affixed to the original stock certificate stubs on file at the Company headquarters in Florence, South Carolina, and according to the law of South Carolina, no documentary stamps are necessary to be affixed to the attached Agreement.
