

State of South Carolina,
Greenville County.

I, Benj. T. Case, in consideration of love and affection for my children hereinafter named and in view of my own inability to provide for their necessary comfort, support and education and because of the confidence I repose in my friends D. E. Duggans and Ellen Duggans, his wife, do agree as follows:

That I do hereby forever relinquish and transfer to the said D. E. Duggans and his wife Ellen Duggans the right of service, custody and control of my children named Thoma Ervin Case age six years and Claudia Case age four years until said children be twenty one years of age or until they shall sooner marry or become engaged in some suitable employment by and with the consent of the said D. E. and Ellen Duggans.

That said D. E. Duggans and Ellen Duggans shall have the right to control and designate the custody, and service of said children and shall so arrange that they shall not be separated the one from the other and in view of the fact that I am unable to properly support and educate them myself I stipulate that said children shall receive such instruction in useful trades as is suitable for people in their position in life and hereby forever relinquish full and right of custody to control service, companionship or other incident to the relation parent.

I hereby transfer and surrender to the said D. E. Duggans and Ellen Duggans in consideration of the premises all the rights, privileges and benefits that accrued to me as parent and establish them absolutely in loco parentis.

Witness my hand and seal this second day of February A.D. 1924.
