

State of South Carolina,
County of Greenville.

I, Gerda L. Prevost, of the City and County of Greenville, do hereby constitute and appoint my husband, M. B. Prevost, my true and lawful attorney for me and in my name, to execute and deliver to Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company a certain note - to the amount of Eight Thousand ($8,000.00) Dollars, - said note to be executed according to the terms of the loan of Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, payable at such times and in such installments, which such rate of interest, attorney fees and other provisions as to the amount, manner and time of payment as said Company may prescribe.

Also to execute and deliver to Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company real estate mortgage to secure the said note, said real estate mortgage to cover a certain lot of land fronting two hundred and thirty-five feet, more or less, on the North side of Washington Place in the City of Greenville, said lot being the same one on which I now reside, and being the same lot presented in the application made by me & through my husband, M. B. Prevost, to the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company for a loan of Eight Thousand Dollars.

And I hereby give to the said M. B. Prevost full and complete authority - to execute the note and mortgage given to secure the same as fully and completely as I myself might do if present.

Witness my hand and seal at Greenville, S.C., this June 21st, 1927.
