State of South Carolina
County of Greenville

Personally appeared before me J. D. McKittrick, who on oath states that he is a resident of the State and County aforesaid, that he knew G. B. Thomason during his life time; that the said G. B. Thomason was the father of C. T. Thomason; that the said G. B. Thomason has been dead for about fifteen years and the said C. T. Thomason about one year.

Deponent avers that he is familiar with the signature of the said G. B. Thomason and knows the signature of C. T.
Thomason as the maker of deed to C. T. Thomason, bearing date of December 19, 1894, to be that of G. B. Thomason, said deed covering tract of land consisting of 42 1/2 acres, more or less, lying in Fairview Township, State and County aforesaid.

Deponent further avers that he knows ^{that} the said C. T. Thomason went into possession of the property covered by the deed many years ago and remained in possession up to the time of his death.

Deponent further avers that he is familiar with the signature of G. B. Thomason and knows that the signature appearing as a witness to the foregoing deed of G. B. Thomason is that of the said G. B. Thomason, who is now dead.

Deponent also knows that James P. Willis is now dead.

Sworn to before me this 22 day of January, 1931.

J. D. McKittrick
