

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,
COUNTY OF GREENVILLE.

VIRGINIA MANUFACTURING COMPANY,
TO
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

QUIT-CLAIM DEED.

WHEREAS, heretofore, to wit, on or about June 4, 1942, the Virginia Manufacturing Company and the United States of America entered into a contract whereby the Virginia Manufacturing Company agreed to release all of its interest in its right-of-way which ran across the lands to be used as the Greenville Air Base, provided the United States of America would remove all of the telephone facilities located along the right-of-way across the Air Base property. The United States has performed its part of the contract in that it has removed all of the poles and telephone facilities from the Virginia Manufacturing Company's right-of-way, and has re-located the same to the satisfaction of the Virginia Manufacturing Company.

THEREFORE, in consideration of the above, the Virginia Manufacturing Company does hereby relinquish, surrender, transfer, release, and quit-claim to the United States of America, and its assigns, all its rights, title and interest in and to certain property which the Virginia Manufacturing Company holds under grants of right-of-way, easements or other evidence of title lying within the Air Base.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD all and singular the said premises before mentioned unto the said United States of America and its assigns forever.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the said Virginia Manufacturing Company has caused these presents to be executed this 28 day of August, 1942.
