

10. That Wyman McCrary, one of the partners, shall be paid adequate compensation as a salary for administering and directing the affairs of the partnership.

11. Neither of the partners shall without the consent in writing of the other do any of the following things, viz:

- A. Release or compound any debt owing to or claimed by the partnership.
- B. Enter into any bond or become security for any person or to knowingly permit to be done anything whereby the capital or property of the partnership may be seized, attached, or taken in execution.
- C. Assign all or any part of his share or interest in the partnership, or introduce or attempt to introduce any other person into the business of the partnership.
- D. Reveal to any person any secret or trade secret communicated to him in connection with the business of the partnership.
- E. In the event of the violation of any of the foregoing agreements by either of the parties hereto, the other party may at his option dissolve their partnership by giving the partner written notice of his election to do so within thirty (30) days after having knowledge of such violation.

12. In case of the decease of one of the partners the surviving partner shall have an option to buy the share or interest in the partnership of the deceased partner. This option shall be exercised, if at all, within sixty (60) days of said decease.

12. In the event of the death of either partner, an account and statement shall be taken and made out of his or her share of the capital and effects of the partnership, and of all unpaid interest and profits belonging to him up to the date of his decease, for which purpose a valuation shall be made of any assets or effects requiring valuation, and the same shall be ascertained to be due and owing to the deceased partner shall be paid by the surviving partners to the legal representative of the deceased partner within twelve months from his decease, and on such payment, the share of the deceased partner in the partnership shall go to the surviving partner.