

A. McCall, Jr., or by a representative designated by said committee. In the event of the death or resignation of any member of said committee, the remaining member shall have full authority to approve or disapprove such design and location or to designate a representative with like authority. In the event said committee, or its designated representative, fails to approve or disapprove such design and location within thirty days after said plans and specifications have been submitted to it, or in any event, if no suit to enjoin the erection of such buildings or the making of such alterations has been commenced prior to the completion thereof, such approval will not be required and this covenant will be deemed to have been fully complied with. Neither the members of such committee, nor their designated representative, will be entitled to any compensation for services performed, pursuant to this covenant. The powers and duties of such committee, and of its designated representative, shall cease on and after January 1, 1986. Thereafter, the approval described in these covenants shall not be required unless, prior to said date and effective thereon, a written instrument shall be executed by the then record owners of a majority of the lots in this subdivision and duly recorded, appointing a representative or representatives, who shall thereafter exercise the same powers previously exercised by said committee.

3. No building shall be located nearer to the front lot line or nearer to the side street line than the building setback line shown on the recorded plat. All residences shall face toward the front of the lot with the exception of the corner lots on which the facing of the residence is indicated by an arrow as shown on the recorded plat. No building shall be located nearer to any inside lot line than 10% of the average width of the lot except detached garages and other outbuildings which shall not be located nearer than 75 feet to the front lot line nor nearer than 10 feet to any side or rear lot line. The building committee designated in Paragraph 2 shall have authority to waive the requirements of this paragraph and of the recorded plat as to the facing of these buildings and as to the side line and setback line requirements.
4. No noxious or offensive trade or activity shall be carried on upon any lot nor shall anything be done thereon which may be or become an annoyance or nuisance to the neighborhood. No horses, ponies, chickens, pigeons or livestock of any type shall be kept or raised on any lot in the subdivision.
5. No trailer, basement, tent, shack, garage, barn or other outbuilding erected on the tract shall at any time be used as a residence, temporarily or permanently, nor shall any structure of a temporary character be
