STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA) CLIE FARRISWORTH
COUNTY OF GREENVILLE) MEMORANDUM TO TRUST AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, I JOSEPH H. MURPHREE, a resident of the County of Greenville, State of South Carolina, have entered into a Trust Agreement under date of July 9, 1968, and

WHEREAS, I own various portions of property and the Trustee in the deeds involved would, of necessity, have to have powers and authorities, and

WHEREAS, there are many personal matters involved in the Trust agreement itself,

NOW THEREFORE, Know All Men By These Presents, that I hereby declare that such Trust Agreement has been entered into so that this Memorandum may be recorded along with the appropriate deed conveyances and thereby relieve any subsequent purchaser or subsequent mortgagee from any and all liability from inquiring into the provisions of said Trust.

I do hereby grant, give and transfer unto my sister, Sarah M. Wilmon, all of my property, personal assets, bank accounts, choses in action in anything of value, in Trust for the following uses and purposes, to-wit:

(1) To hold, control and manage the Trust Estate in all respects with full power to retain, sell, re-sell, invest, reinvest, convey property, mortgage property, lease, borrow money thereon and exercise all powers necessary or incidental to the proper management of the Trust Estate;

(2) After deducting commissions and all expenses in connection with the management of said Trust Estate, the Trustee shall apply the net income to the support, maintenance and education of Cynthia Joann Murphree, during her minority, and for the reasonable necessities of life for Joseph H. Murphree. This Trust shall continue in force until such time as Joseph H. Murphree has been acquitted by the Courts or has been convicted and set free with regard to the warrant now issued in connection with
