

4. That each party may make such disposition of his or her property as the case may be, by gift or will during his or her lifetime, as each sees fit; and in the event of the decease of one of the parties, the survivor shall have no interest in the property of the estate of the other, either by way of inheritance, succession, family allowance or homestead except as may be prescribed by his or her last will and testament.

5. That the said James R. Wilson, Jr. agrees that he will be responsible for the care, support, maintenance and education of any child who may be born of the marriage until such child or children reaches the age of twenty-one.

6. That in the event of a separation, or in the event of a divorce, regardless of the ground upon which said separation or divorce may be granted and regardless of which party is the moving party in seeking or obtaining the separation or divorce, that neither party shall have any right as against the other by way of claims for support, alimony, attorney's fees, costs or division of property.

7. It is further agreed that this agreement is entered into with a full knowledge on the part of each party as to the extent and probable value of the estate of the other and of all the rights conferred by law upon each in the estate of the other by virtue of said proposed marriage, but in their desire that their respective rights be fixed by this agreement which shall be binding upon the parties and upon their respective heirs, assigns and legal representatives.