

151 Saluda River in the County of Greenville having such shape and marks and form as is represented by a plot annexed to each grant for the said land and signed by his Excellency William Moutreau to Sarah Rautston for one hundred and sixty six acres in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty six the second day of October also the other grant signed by his Excellency William Moutreau to Edwin Smith for six hundred and eighty acres of land adjoining the above mentioned land of Rautston in the said County and state all round Rautston's land Saluda Excepted signed the fifth day of June One thousand seven hundred and eighty six and in the tenth year of American Independence beginning at the Mouth of James Thompsons Spring branch a straight course East a long a line of mark trees to a corner stake thence $N 60^{\circ} W 57 - 5^{\circ} 0'$ to a rd Corner thence $N 33^{\circ}$ to a rd Oak Station thence W course a long Mark trees to the head of a branch thence a straight course of the mouth of the said branch as Saluda river thence down Saluda to the beginning line of a Mark trees together with all and singular the rights and titles there-unto belonging or in anywise appertaining also all the rights together Claims and demands of him the said Edwin Smith of in and to the same premises unto the said Stephen Butterworth his heirs and assigns shall and will warrant and for ever defend these presents land and sale and the rights in fee simple against myself heirs and every other person