

his bond to repay the same without interest in one, two and three years, to assist him in settling up trade.

Item. To William and Charles Polk, the brothers of my wife Mary Brown, I have ten guineas, to each to purchase a suit of clothes.

I appoint my beloved wife Mary Brown, Executors and my friends Benjamin Bincham & Richard Lloyd Champion Executors of this my last will and testament. I caution them against paying debts claimed as due from my Estate, which may be barred by law, unless they of their own knowledge know them to be just —

I humbly commit my soul to the mercy of Almighty God, praying that he may forgive my faults in this World, whether my opinions of Religion have been or false, as I endeavored to form the best system I could.

Done and executed as my last Will & Testament on the thirteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and two. Witness my hand and Seal.

Signed Sealed & declared as his Daniel Brown 183

Last Will & Testament in our presence, the same being first read to him. David Ramsay, Cath. Cadworth, Benj. Gray.
