

Carolina and partly in the District of Greenville South Carolina. ~~and partly in the District of Viz.~~ One tract of one hundred acres Vaughns Creek, beginning on a poplar in Rutherford County running thence west one hundred poles to pine and painters, thence south crossing the Creek and state line one hundred and sixty poles to a black oak, thence East one hundred poles to stake, thence North to the beginning Originally granted to James Logan also one other tract of twenty eight acres joining the aforesaid tract ~~of twenty eight acres~~ ~~beginning~~ on a branch of Vaughns Creek beginning at a Chesnut on the line of the aforesaid tract running thence East twenty six poles to a white oak thence north sixty poles crossing the state line to a stake thence west seventy six poles to a stake in the aforesaid line thence south to the beginning Originally granted to James Logan. Also one other tract of one hundred acres in Rutherford County on Lewis Creek beginning on a post oak in the head of a draught of Vaughns Creek thence East one hundred and sixty poles to a Chesnut thence south one hundred to a stake, thence west one hundred and sixty poles to a stake, thence to the beginning originally granted to James Logan, also one other tract of fifty acres in Rutherford county joining the last mentioned tract on both sides of the black horn creek beginning on a white oak on the lower line of said tract running thence East thirty eight poles to a black oak, thence South seventy East fifty four poles to a pine thence North forty five East two hundred and sixteen poles to red oak below the shoal thence North sixty west twenty poles crossing the Creek to a stake thence South fifty eight west two hundred and seventy poles to the beginning Originally granted to James Logan, also two hundred and seventy acres in Rutherford County being part of a tract of three hundred and fifty acres Originally granted to James Logan beginning on a large black and white oak Robert Braams corner running thence East four poles to a stake thence South seven East three hundred and ninety poles to a stake in or near old lines, thence west one hundred and sixty poles to a stake thence North two hundred and ninety poles to a stake thence ~~North two hundred~~ to the beginning which said Lands and tenements being all originally granted to James Logan as may more fully appear reference being had to the original patents was divided by the last will and Testament of said James Logan to his sons George M. Logan and Robert Logan and by a mutual agreement betwixt said George and Robert became the property of George M. Logan and now by these presents by the said George M. Logan granted and conveyed to Alexander Carruth together with all woods, ways, water, houses, orchards or other improvements