person that I John Embury of Greenville County of the State of South Carolina, weak in body, but being of sound mind, and memory, considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, do make, ordain, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament. In consideration of the fact that Peggy Campbell has agreed to remain with me and my sister Polly the balance of my natural life to take care of us and to minister to our wants, and to take care of the property which we own, I wish that after we are dead, and our bodies decently buried, and all our expenses connected with the same and all lawful debts paid that the said Peggy Campbell should have, & do here by in this my last will and testament give to him the said Peggy Campbell all of the property I now own both real estate and personal, consisting of one hundred and twenty three acres of land more or less, cattle, hogs, furniture, beds bedding, in short everything I own in the house and out of it, to be his and to enjoy and to do with it according to his own pleasure, In Witness Whereof I have here unto subscribed my name and seal this the 16th day of February in the year of our Lord 1870,

John Embury (S)
The above written instrument was signed by the said John Embury in our presence, and he at the same time published and declared the above written instrument to be his last will and testament,
