474. B. C. Presley,
To
Jas P. Boyce,
I. Benjamin C. Presley now of Summersville in said state and formerly engaged in the practice of law at Charleston, do now make the statement concerning a bond of James P. Boyce to Charles L. Burckmyer, Com and by mortgage on the Real Estate of said James P. Boyce in the Town of Grinnell in said state. At the time said bond and mortgage were executed, the New York Crediting of Lands, Boyce, of Company, were about to sue James Boyce as endorser the notes of the said firm, which had failed for a large amount, Dr. Boyce had given said firm, however to use his name as their endorser, and when said suit against him was threatened he found it difficult which might thus lie in law against him owing $1000 com-his whole tangible property as to make it impossible for him to pay his indebtedness to his sister, for whom he was trustee, under his father's will, the property which he was then inseparable, and had not wish to sell it.
As he could not confess judgment or give a mortgage to himself as trustee, being his legal address, with his counsel, Chase & L. Burckmyer, as temporary trustee and the bond and mortgage of the Grinnell property were executed and delivered to the said Burckmyer with intend to secure whatever may lie in law by the said James Boyce to the Trust Estates of his sister, Dr.
Allen Tupper. If the heirs of that estate have live with them, then the said bond and a mortgage over to the trust estates to be charged and discharged.
